

How much of each record the source actually states

|                      | Published whole(n=27) | Digest(n=522) |
|----------------------|---------------------------|-------------------|
| Case number          | 100%                      | 99%               |
| Decision date        | 100%                      | 100%              |
| Formation            | 100%                      | 97%               |
| Chamber number       | 48%                       | 76%               |
| Presiding judge      | 100%                      | 86%               |
| Counsellors          | 93%                       | 85%               |
| Prosecutor           | 96%                       | 82%               |
| Clerk                | 96%                       | 74%               |
| Subject matter       | 100%                      | 96%               |
| Year of registration | 26%                       | 18%               |
| Court appealed from  | 100%                      | 9%                |
| Disposition          | 100%                      | 1%                |

Share of rows carrying a value. Empty means the document does not say it — nothing is imputed. The reports name no bench for a plenary sitting, and their extracts stop before the disposition.